THE CLASS HISTORY

It was bright and cheery on a particular day in September, 1944, for a group of students, some 128 strong, were positively dying to get inside H.H.S. and really see if high school was actually as wonderful as they had heard. We, the Seniors of the Class of 1949, were those students, just as green a lot as had ever entered Henderson High. Not much happened that first year when we were considered mere eighth graders.

You might say that our real high school life began that next year, for as Freshmen, we began to take part in school activities and feel just a little bit superior. Our officers were Donald Seifert, President; Marshall Pinnell, Vice-President; and E. G. Collins, Secretary-Treasurer. Not only did we have fun that year, but we worked too. Our class had a larger percentage of honor roll students than any other class.

In the fall of 1946, we again entered the portals of H.H.S., this time as Sophomores. With Sallie Kerner, Marshall Pinnell, and Martha Newcomb as our President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer, respectively, another year passed successfully by. Its highlight was the choosing of sixteen of us to be waiters and waitresses at the Junior-Senior Banquet.

I am sure none of us will ever forget the year of 1947-48. As Juniors and at last upperclassmen, we filled it to the brim. With President, Donald Seifert; Vice-President, Charles Hite; Secretary, Helen Cheek; and Treasurer, Ann Conn, as our leaders, we were host at the ever important Junior-Senior Prom. Our Mexican Fiesta was to be sure a gala affair, enjoyed by all. Our large class had now dwindled to 69 members, but that made little difference in our activities. When our class rings arrived, naturally we felt there were no others like them. The halls of H.H.S. echoed with shouts of joy when we slipped them onto our fingers. Our class play, a comedy called "A Case of Springtime," was a big hit, thanks to the efforts of Miss Clyde Hunter and Mr. Bob Harrison, our sponsors, whose patience with us was untiring.

In 1948, when we passed through the doors of our dear Alma Mater, we could hardly believe that we were Seniors. Soon we realized, though, that this was our last year and that soon we would never be together as a class again. This, our last year, flew by swiftly, for we crammed into it all the things we before had left undone. We presented our class play, and it was hard to believe that the wonderful Junior-Senior was being held in our honor. With Badger Clark as President, Jack Lane as Vice-President, Ann Conn as Secretary, and Tom Byrd as Treasurer, our long awaited Washington trip was planned and experienced. After the many nice Senior parties, the long tedious English themes, our class day exercises, and the election of Senior superlatives, we discovered that our year was almost gone.

Soon we shall leave our beloved Henderson High and behind us the five glorious years we have spent here. In our hearts there will always be fond memories of the teachers who put up with us, of the many friends we've made, and of the days gone by. Many thanks to you, H.H.S., for giving us the privilege of playing and studying on the campus we no longer will call our home.

CLASS PROPHECY

Having been selected Class Prophet of the Class of 1949, I dug my crystal ball out of the attic to see what my classmates would be doing in 1959. The crystal ball was a little misty and I couldn't see a thing; so, I went to see Madam Muriel, well known fortune teller, to see if she could be of any assistance. After a little persuasion and several greenbacks, she came across with the following prophecy:

Elizabeth Adams—Teaching English at "Cow" College.
Anne Alston—Cigarette girl in a big New York night club.
Eugene Barnes—Private detective—got his experience as a Hall Monitor at H.H.S.
Dan Bishop—Back in Ohio with a stronger brogue than ever.
Dot Brafford—Teaching a class in the art of winning friends and influencing people.
Herbert Burke—Manager of the Republic Burlesque Show at Ocean View.
Tom Byrd—Handy man taking care of the Cheatham estate.
Helen Cheek—Still just nuts about drum majors.
Badger Clark—Still watching the clouds roll by waiting for a "Sprinkle."
Elaine Cole—Vaudeville has been revived and Elaine is the main attraction with her Dixie-land singing.
E. G. Collins—Playing professional football for the "Mobile Mobilizers."
Bill Collins—Playing Jew's-harp solos on the "Grand Ole Opry" radio program.
Ann Conn—Supporting Lucius by clerking in good ole Rose's.
Frances Currin—Looking for a shorter route to Oxford, so she can see her Lonnie more often.
Lillian Davis—Still happy after nine beautiful years of married life with Ollie.
Wade Davis—A side show "barker" with a Golden Belt Fair Girl Show.
Mildred Delbridge—Still wearing her diamond on the left hand one week and on the right hand the next week.
Jim Duke—Still swapping girls with the "Count" (Billy Satterwhite).
Marshall Evans—Traveling at break-neck speeds on his Super-Duper-Scooter.
Julian Falkner—Riding with Marshall for the fun of it.
Robert Faulkner—Dean of the University of California and teaching classes in psychology, at which he is an expert.
Titus Faulkner—Trying to make up his mind as to who should be Mrs. Titus Faulkner, Jr.—Anne, Dot, or Pat.
Jay Fogleman—Married to Jo Ann and raising a basketball team of his own.
Sam Fox—Winning the Olympic 100 meter dash. (Some big fellow must have been behind him.)
Alice Ruth Gardner—Wife to a prosperous farmer in "Punga."
Pat Gill—Working behind the meat counter at Inseco's Market
Malissa Glenn—Priming tobacco on Trado's plantation.
Margaret Glover—Private secretary to a multi-millionaire.
Billy Rix Harris—Teaching Physics at Louisburg College.
J. P. Harris—Still dressing as sharp as ever and just nuts about "Bowling."
Tom "Cat" Harris—Playing drums for the "Silas Green" minstrel show.
Fred Hight—Still happily married to Louise.
Charles Hite—Manager of the A.&P. Super Market.
Mary Hough—A nurse at Duke Hospital (a pretty good one, too).
Harold House—Successful business man.

Ann Hunt—Living in China with a certain preacher we know.

Bobby Jones—Admiral in Uncle Sam's Navy. He ranked first in his class at Annapolis.

John Paul Jones—A North Carolina game warden, getting everybody for hunting without a license.

Sallie Kerner—A concert pianist touring the world with a certain Mr. Smith as her manager.

Jack Lane—Still a "King Pin" lent now to the Chicago Bears Pro Football Team.

Bessie Lassiter—Still chewing gum and typing 120 words a minute.

Carl Lassiter—Still trying to make time with some girl—just any girl.

Durwood (Crip) Lester—Has his own Be Bop Sextette. His drumming is "out of this world."

Beegie Long—Singing with Crip's band.

Glenn Long—Has his own hill-billy band playing over station WHNC.

Tommy Morris—Still traveling the rural routes trying to get a girl.

Mariel Mullins—Helping Frances find that shorter route to Oxford so she can see Richard more often.

Carson Raynor—Western movie actor playing in the serial, "The Return of Zoro."

Anne Reams—She decided to go North. We wonder why? Wonder how she's doing with that Southern drawl in Cleveland.

Harold Renn—Married and farming in "Punga."

Dot Rooker—Chief mechanic at Grissom's Body Shop.

Peggy Rooker—Still hanging around the Big Star waiting for a certain Kittrell guy.

Virginia Strange—Now living in Virginia near Camp Picket with 10,000 soldiers around.

George Taylor—In the Barnum & Bailey Circus as the world's greatest ear wiggler.

Owen Tharrington—Telling all the girls about having been the best looking boy in his class of '49.

Nancy Vaughan—Cute and nice as ever. She decided on John Rogers as her life investment.

Robert Watkins—Playing a guitar in Glenn Long's band.

Pearl Lee Woodlief—Singing torch songs in New York night clubs.

Mary Helen Wright—Beautiful Powers Model and married to Lawson Jackson.

Georgia Zapantis—Owner of a chain of exclusive dress shops.

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the class of 1949, known as the "forty-niners," being in the majority of sound minds and bodies, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To "Doc" we leave fond memories of a wonderful five years of high school and the hope that he enjoyed our practical jokes as much as we did.

To Mr. Harrison, we leave the hope that he will replace H. V. Kaltenborn on the Pure Oil hour.

To Miss Hunter, who has borne with us, we leave the chance of a quiet freshman class. (We hope!!)

To the other faculty members, we leave the echoes of our voices and the shouts of laughter in the halls.

To the students who are to take our places, we would like to leave these valued possessions:

To "Chick" Young we leave the good all-round football playing of Jack Lane and Badger Clark.

To next year's biology classes we bequeath the brains of Billy Harris and Donald Seifert to dissect. (What makes them tick??)

To Offie Lockemy we confer "Tom Cat" Harris' friendliness.

Harold House's executive ability we present to Faye Conn. (Wait and see—there'll be a woman president yet!)

Billy Collins bestows his musical talent upon Delores Matthews.

The artistic sense of Malissa Glenn we give to Jesse Short to keep for future PEP-PACs.

To the basketball team: we divide evenly among you the fine sportsmanship and playing ability of Helen O'Brien.

To Edward Loughlin we leave O. K. Tharrington's acrobatic ability with the hope that he will stay out of ditches.

We leave our school spirit, bloody and battered, but still alive to the classes that follow us.

To the band we leave the hope that new flag bearers will be found with the poise and beauty of Mary Wright, Dot Brafford, and Sallie Kerner.

The petiteness of Martha Jane Newcomb and Alice Gardner we bestow upon Ann Marcom and Elizabeth Ann Bass.

We leave the lounging ability of Titus Faulkner, Jay Fogelman, and Tom Byrd to anyone who is lazy enough to take it up.

To Barbara Cothran we present Pat Gill's talent for strutting.

To the future editor of the PEP-PAC we leave the patience and editorial ability of Charles Hite.

From the rest of the senior class we leave to the underclassmen our cheerfulness, good looks, and the ability to spot the information teachers use on tests. These gifts are very valuable and should be cherished as heirlooms.

We therefore leave this, our last will and testament, to be executed as we have set forth. In witness thereof we sign our names on this day of graduation.

The Bulldog, a monthly paper published by the members of the Journalism Class, is a link between students and faculty. It is composed of "key" youths of the school who are selected from the top third of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. It is not a new idea, but has been functioning for the past twenty years. The Key Club is not "just another organization." It carries out in the school a complete service program that is not limited to the members, but assists all students toward better citizenship ideals.

THE HENDERSON HIGH SCHOOL BAND

The Henderson High School Band is one of the most outstanding organizations of its kind in North Carolina. This year there are some eighty members in the Band, with many new ones from Junior High.

The Band has been active this year. It participated at several college games, among which were the Duke-Tennessee and the Carolina-William and Mary games. Also the Band attended the out-of-town games of our football team and provided varied entertainment at each home game played on Veterans Field. The Shrine Parade and the Armistice Day Parade, both in Raleigh, were two of the parades in which the Band took part.

Each year two concerts are given in the auditorium for the pleasure of the community. For several years the Band has entered state contests for playing and marching abilities, receiving top honors in each of these fields.

Under the direction of Mr. W. T. Hearne, Jr., with two very able assistants, Mr. D. A. Brown and Mr. C. E. Pardon, the Band has gained state-wide recognition through its numerous activities.

Athletics

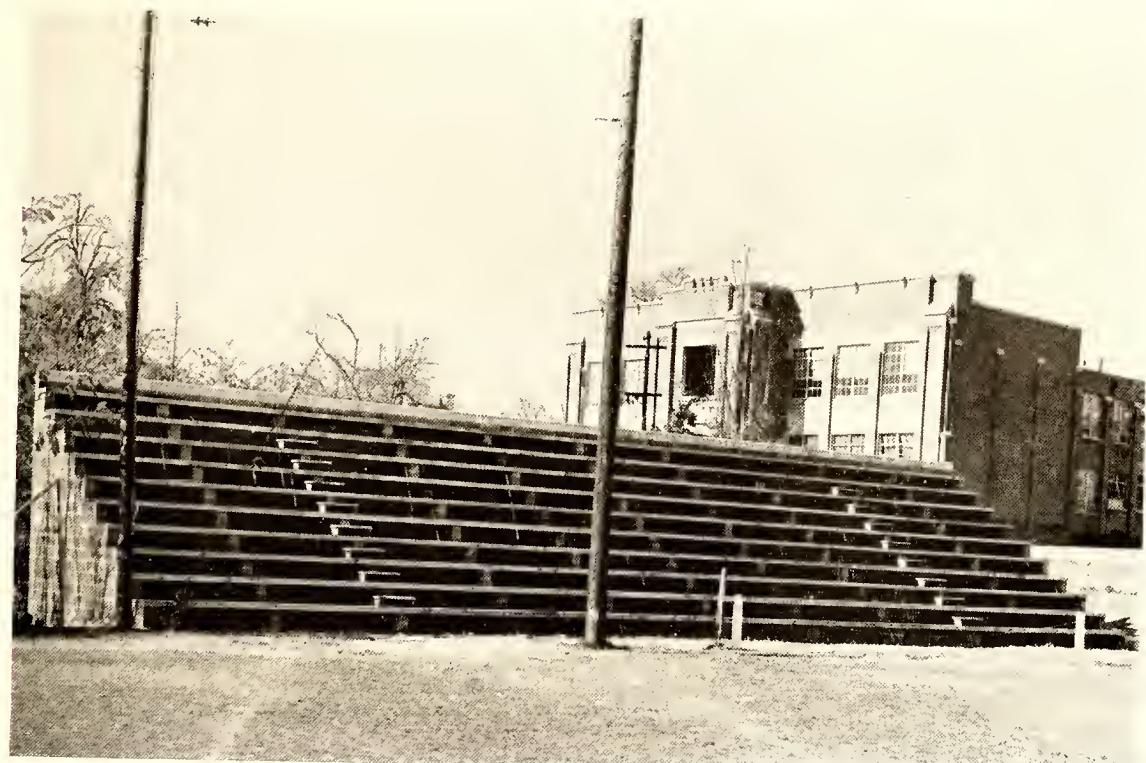

Because a fine football team must be provided with adequate playing facilities, efforts were concentrated this year toward improving and expanding the football plant at Henderson high school.

Under direction of the Citizens Athletic Committee, approximately $3,000 was spent in renovating the lighting system for night games, including the installation of new electrical transformers, reflectors, new wiring, poles and other equipment. The project was completed prior to the opening game on September 10 and provided a substantial improvement in visibility for fans.

Remembering the standing-room only crowds that attended all home games during the 1947 season, the Citizens Committee also worked on the expansion of seating facilities in the stadium. A new bleacher section seating an additional 500 fans was erected on the east side of the playing field. With this new section, the seating capacity was raised to approximately 4,500.

Other improvements to the plant included the erection of a new press and radio booth atop the west stands, providing excellent facilities for complete coverage by newspapers and radio of home games. It is interesting to note that all Bulldog games were broadcast over the facilities of WHNC-FM.

Plans for the future include the replanting of grass on the playing field, installation of additional seating facilities to make the stadium in the form of a horseshoe, and to further improve lighting facilities.

1948 EXPANSION OF VETERANS FIELD

ATHLETIC COMMITTEE

The Citizens Athletic Committee, composed of 10 Henderson business men, again functioned in coöperation with school officials during the 1948 athletic campaign.

The committee, of which George W. Harrison served as chairman, handled all financial and business transactions for the entire athletic program, including the athletic training program launched at Junior high school. Meeting frequently as the various athletic seasons advanced, the committee arranged for all equipment used by the various high school teams in all sports, passed upon schedules, handled gate finances, and in general coöperated with school officials in directing activities under Coach Joe Caruso.

The committee was first organized in 1947, coincident with the arrival of Coach Caruso. It was composed this year of the following business men: Harrison, Pettis Terrell, E. C. Loughlin, Jr., Clem O. Seifert, John C. Church, Bloys W. Britt, Fred Kesler, T. Preston Matthews, Erskine Clements, Jr., and Charles Bussey, who also served his second year as business manager for the committee.

COACHING STAFF

JIRINEC

CHARLES JIRINEC—Head Coach of boys' basketball and Assistant Coach of football. Coach Jirinec hails to us from East Islip, Long Island, New York. He graduated from Wake Forest College in 1948, having previously served in the Navy, Army, and Army Cadet Corps during the war. We welcome Coach Jirinec here with a successful athletic record in his schooling and hope that he may continue with a successful career in our athletic department.

MRS. EUGENE B. BASKETT—Coach of girls' basketball. Coach Baskett, completing five years of successful coaching at Henderson High School, may be praised highly for her ability to produce successful girls' basketball teams. During her career here in Henderson, Coach Baskett has produced teams which have set records in scoring and winning in H.H.S. history. We also welcome her back for years to come to produce more winning teams.

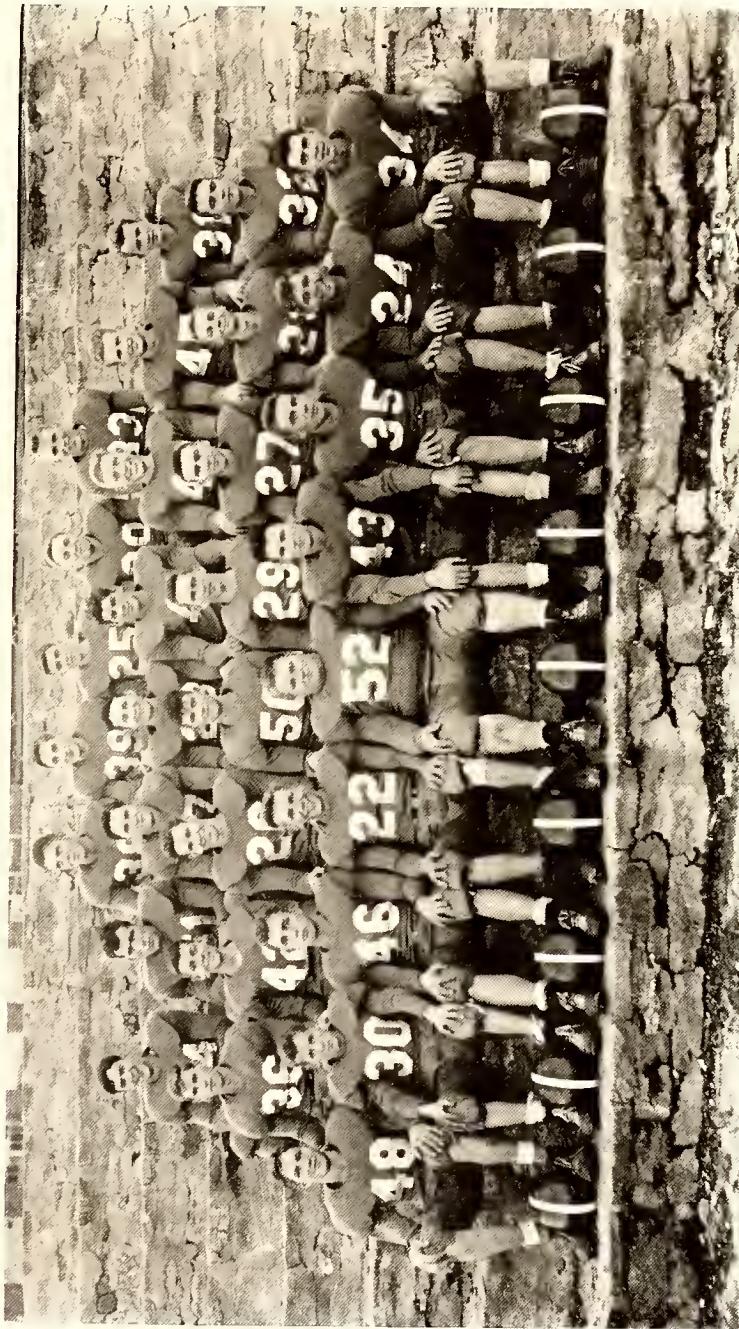

JOE CARUSO—Head Coach of football and baseball. Coach Caruso coached the first State Class A Championship Football Team of Henderson High School in 1947, his first year here as coach. Coach Caruso, who won "Little All-America" honors at Elon College, came to Henderson after five years at Rocky Mount High School and immediately started moulding the 1947 championship team. During the 1948 season another team was produced that deserves a lot of honor for its hard play, although it failed to capture the State Championship again. We hope that Coach Caruso's success will be carried on to the many seasons that lie in the future.

VARSITY FOOTBALL RECORD

It might not have been an omen of any sort, but our Henderson High School Bulldogs of 1948 began their regular season play on a rain-soaked field and ended it 10 games later in a downpour such as hadn't been seen on Raleigh's Riddick Stadium grid in many moons.

And, strange as it may have seemed at the time, both the season opener and the season finale were sweet-tooth victories beginning and ending a season which saw everything in the bad luck book happen to the Big Blue.

The Bulldogs this year were defending the North Carolina Class A championship which they won on Thanksgiving Day, 1947, by dethroning the Mount Airy Granite Bears, 24-14. Only Carlton (Bozo) Robertson, Albert Catlett and Clyde Inscoe were missing from that great 1947 team. Everyone looked to Coach Joe Caruso to produce another champion. He did, but the breaks, injuries and all those other mishaps which sometime strike without warning, served to throw the victory train out of gear.

It all began in that opening game with Rockingham on September 10. This victory (25-13) was costly, as others proved to be later on in the campaign. Veteran quarterback B. C. Long injured a knee in the game with the Rocks and didn't get back into action the remainder of the season. Two weeks later, in the Mount Airy return match, fullback Billy Williams—the team's only triple-threat—broke a collarbone, and he too was out for the remainder of the season, except for occasional appearances to try for extra points. John Thomas, another star back, injured a knee in the Mount Airy game and wasn't up to par until after the campaign was nearly over.

Despite these injuries, however, the Bulldogs made a creditable showing on the toughest schedule ever undertaken by a Bulldog team. In eleven games they won eight and lost only three, two of these by one point. They scored 219 points to 81 for the opposition, scored two wins out of three starts against Class AA competition, whipped the Class A team (Mount Airy) which later won the State title, and generally proved themselves to be the top team in the state in their own league.

But they still were denied the championship which should have been theirs.

There were stars aplenty during the 1948 campaign. Harold House, who replaced "Bozo" Robertson, was one of the workmen who didn't miss a game. Sam Fox, who wasn't a member of the 1947 team, came through with flying colors. Bobby Young developed as a backfield star replacing injured Billy Williams, and promised to be one of the school's best triple-threats in years to come. Johnnie Thomas, when going at full steam, was never better. Donald Seifert, although playing his first year as a senior, filled in capably as replacement for injured B. C. Long. Williams started the season with a bang, and probably would have brought the title back to Henderson had he not been injured. Tom Register played well on defense.

Up front in the line, the 1948 Bulldogs were equally strong. Such 1947 standouts as Badger Clark, Lawson Jackson, Bobby Thomas, Pete Overton, Dick Dickerson, Dan Bishop and Jack Lane came through in fine style. Most used substitutes were Jimmy Knight, Offie Lockamy, Carroll Hedgepeth, R. M. Tindal and Jimmie Brafford.

As previously mentioned, the Bulldogs got their season underway with a 25 to 13 victory over Rockingham on Veterans Field. A crowd of 3,500 sat in a steady drizzle of rain to inaugurate the season. Harold House scored two touchdowns, Billy Williams and John Thomas, one each.

Durham County's Class A teams, representing all high schools in the county outside of Durham, visited Veterans Field on September 17 and were victims of a 33 to 6 defeat. Williams romped 62 yards for one score, scored another on a short hike, and kicked two extra points. John Thomas, Sam Fox and Harold House each contributed another touchdown, Fox's on a 45 yard gallop. House also got an extra point.

The big game of the regular season came next. Mount Airy, loser in the 1947 championship game, re-visited Henderson as a regular season opponent. From the opening gong, the Bulldogs showed mastery, leading 19 to 0 at halftime. Then the roof almost fell in on the Bulldogs. Williams broke his shoulder shortly after the second half got underway, Johnnie Thomas went out with a sprained knee, Bobby Thomas had to leave the lineup with an injured leg, and things looked bad. Mount Airy went on a rampage in the second half, scored two touchdowns, and almost got another. But the day was saved by Coach Caruso's smart coaching and by the Bulldogs' grim determination to win. The final score: Henderson 19, Mount Airy 14.

With the Mount Airy game out of the way, and despite injuries, the Bulldogs bounced Oxford Orphanage 19 to 0 the next week, and then whipped Goldsboro's Class AA Earthquakes 20-7, on their home lot a week later. The Goldsboro game saw Sam Fox gallop 90 yards for one touchdown, and Badger Clark garner two more while playing fullback instead of his regular end position.

On October 15, Burlington's Class AA powerhouse, which went to the State finals in the higher circuit, handed the Bulldogs their first defeat. Injury-riddled and outweighed 20 pounds to the man, the Bulldogs couldn't get going against the Westerners and dropped a 26 to 0 loss. Burlington, incidentally, was the only team to defeat the Bulldogs in 1947.

Next came Methodist Orphanage and the first of the two one-point defeats which cost the Bulldogs the State championship. Outplayed from start to finish, the Orphans nevertheless managed to block a kick on the Henderson three-yard line, resulting in a touchdown, and later kicked out of bounds on the Bulldog one-yard line to set up a safety which meant the margin of victory. The Bulldogs gained 213 yards rushing and rolled up 12 first downs to two for the Orphanage, but managed only one score. The final score was Orphanage 8, Henderson 7.

Another one-point heartbreaking loss came the following week against arch-rival Oxford High. Their morale down to the lowest ebb of the season, and with star players still missing from the lineup, the Bulldogs couldn't get going and lost 7 to 6. Badger Clark dropped a pass in the end zone with seconds left. Had he held on, Henderson would have brought victory out of the fire.

It remained for Hillsboro to catch the Bulldogs on the rebound. With two weeks of rest after the Oxford tussle, the Bulldogs were hot for the remainder of the campaign and resembled the 1947 champions. Hillsboro went down fighting, by 25 to 0. This game was featured by three touchdown passes thrown by Bobby Young. Overton, Clark and House were the receivers, while Sam Fox scored on a reverse to divide honors.

Raleigh's Class AA Caps were next and the scene was laid in Riddick Stadium on the campus of N. C. State College. The Bulldogs were 14-point underdogs. Raleigh was big and tough. Furthermore, it had rained for days preceding the game, and more was promised on the night of the game. The rain did come, and it came down in sheets, but it didn't bother the Bulldogs. They had a lot of fun drubbing the Caps 13 to 0 in one of the upsets of the year. Badger Clark set up the victory by returning the opening kickoff 77 yards for a touchdown, and Billy Williams returned to action to kick the extra point. On the first play from scrimmage after a punt exchange, Harold House put the game on ice with a 42 yard gallop for the second touchdown.

That ended the regular season, but the Bulldogs weren't through. Whiteville's District 1 champions came up for a post-season game on Thanksgiving Day. There isn't much to be said of that final game, except that the Bulldogs were hot and won by 52 to 0.

That definitely ended the campaign. It was an excellent season, despite the fact that as of this year, at least, the championship cup is back at Mount Airy. Forthcoming annuals are certain to record that it has returned to Henderson.

OUTSTANDING RECOGNITION

BADGER CLARK, End.

Climaxing four years of stardom for the Bulldogs, end Badger Clark received an invitation to play in the annual North-South Carolina high school all-star Shrine football game in Charlotte. He played most of the game on defense and was highly praised for his fine play. He was one of two Bulldogs receiving top mention on the State All-Star selections.

JACK LANE, Guard.

This popular student and athlete also climaxed his high school playing days with an invitation to the Shrine game and played well while in the game. He also received honorable mention on the All-State squad. Like Clark, Lane was one of the stars on the 1947 and 1948 basketball teams.

HAROLD HOUSE, Halfback.

One of the stars of this year's Bulldog team, Harold climaxed his high school playing days by playing the entire Optimist Bowl game at High Point, suffering an injured hand late in the contest. He is considered one of the best backs ever produced in our school.

DONALD SEIFERT, Quarterback.

Beginning the season as a reserve, Donald took over as first string quarterback after the first game and played brilliantly all season. He was selected to play with the eastern high school All-Star team against a similar team from the west in the Optimist Bowl at High Point. He is a Senior.

LAWSON JACKSON, Center.

Lawson, who is a junior, was chosen the outstanding Bulldog player by his teammates this year and was awarded the Elrod Trophy at the football banquet climaxing the season. Lawson will be back for more duty in 1949.

THANKSGIVING FOOTBALL CLASSIC

Henderson invited Whiteville, champions of District One, to play this year in the traditional game on Thanksgiving Day. Quite a large crowd saw Henderson come off the field with the victory score of 52-0. These Thanksgiving games are a source of interest to the community and we hope will continue in the future to bring the smiles of victory.

JUNIOR VARSITY SEASON RECORD

For the first time in the history of the Senior High, the school was represented on the football field by a junior varsity team playing a regular season schedule. A Junior Varsity squad was formed during the 1947 season, but there was no regulation schedule.

The idea for the junior varsity was furnished by Head Coach Joe Caruso, who felt that such a unit would furnish valuable experience to youngsters who later would be available for varsity service. Playing a schedule of its own, the juniors thus would gain valuable knowledge of team sportsmanship, coördination and the fundamentals of football.

Playing a rugged schedule, in addition to furnishing reserve strength for the varsity games, the junior varsity won two games, tied in still another, and lost four battles during the campaign. That made up a seven-game schedule, and it meant that in several cases some of the junior varsity players managed to get into two games per week.

Several stars of the team are booked for future heavy duty with the varsity. These include Bobby Young, triple-threat fullback who played brilliantly in several varsity games; Gaius Gregory, fleet halfback, who also participated in a number of varsity encounters; Bobby Renn, back; and linemen Jack Stanley, R. M. Tindal, Horace Williams, William Moser, Jerry Johnson and Harry Ross. Much will be recounted about these boys in future PEP-PACs.

The team opened its season with a 25 to 0 loss to a heavier and more experienced Spring Hope eleven. A week later, however, the Bullpups scrapped a heavier Norlina team to a 7-7 tie on Veterans Field in one of the best games of the season.

Then came an 8 to 6 loss to Oxford Orphanage and a 14 to 6 loss to Roxboro. The latter game was amply avenged the following week when Roxboro came to Veterans Field for a return game. Bobby Young's passing and Gaius Gregory's running had the visitors dizzy and the team won a 31 to 14 victory.

The following week the Pups reached the peak of their season, defeating Carr Junior High of Durham, 38 to 0, as Young and Gregory again paced the locals. Oxford Juniors eaked out a 14 to 7 win in the next game, which ended the season.

In commenting on the Junior Varsity season Head Coach Caruso and Assistant Coach Jirinec expressed appreciation for the fine work turned in by the juniors.

BASKETBALL

The Henderson high school Bulldogs ended their cage season on February 25. Facing stiff competition, both the girls' and boys' squads were forced through a tough season of play. The boys came through with only two wins and eleven losses, while the girls put forth a record of seven wins and two losses.

Both squads are satisfied that they did their best, and may we congratulate them on their untiring efforts.

Under the capable abilities of Coaches Jirinec (boys) and Baskett (girls), both squads are building foundations for fine teams in the future. We wish them all the success in our power and are looking forward to seeing H. H. S. on a basketball champion list.

DURING the next six years, half a million teaching positions will be available in the United States. Thousands of men and women are needed to replace inadequately prepared teachers now in the schools, to fill the vacancies caused by normal turnover, and to meet the needs of the five million additional children born during wartime. There is a need for elementary and high school teachers, college instructors, principals, superintendents, and educational specialists of every kind.

Now you know the law of supply and demand. When your kind of training and ability are needed, offers for it are made more and more attractive.

That is what's happening in the teaching profession. Many communities are taking steps to improve their local school conditions—some are granting salary increases—North Carolina has established a definite minimum salary schedule for teachers.

The ability to teach is a special gift, a valued talent, and no profession provides greater personal satisfaction than teaching. If you are a "born teacher"—make your decision now to join this honored profession. For "Our Teachers Mold Our Nation's Future," and America's future has need of you.
